Focus for this meeting: Curriculum and residential

VW welcomed everyone

	Area of discussion	Action
	Actions from last meeting: Awarding more golden tickets across the school and raffle will now be every half term Planning to run an e-safety session for parents next term Attendance display now visible and have put onto the newsletter to show how we compare against national expectation Menu homework given out on 17th May
1	Curriculum VW outlined the currently Ofsted thinking and how, as a school, we have reviewed our current curriculum. The curriculum intent was shared and VW asked for any feedback. VW explained that Ofsted were happy with the breadth of curriculum on offer but we knew that we needed to focus on depth and development of skills. Once the long term plan is finalised VW will share with all of the school community	VW
2	Residential VW outlined what we currently do and asked for what priorities parents had for the residential: Outdoors and adventurous activities Options within what is on offer Non-competitive Being away from home Want it just to be with peer group that they know Previously has been some friction when allowed to have time alone in their accommodation Something that teaches mindfulness and team work Discussed amount of days for a residential – suggested every year for 2 nights – VW to action	VW
